THICKREDLINE Launches to Counter Efforts to Defund the Police

New Grassroots Organization Supports the Police to Say: NO! to the “laws” and orders of politicians and unelected bureaucrats that cause racial and social division

Everywhere - Wednesday, October 21st 2020

Today the THICKREDLINE Project launches our grassroots effort to support peace officers challenging politicians and bureaucrats using “law enforcement” to enforce penalties on the People for victimless crimes. “Crimes” that cause societal division between the People and their Police.

The THICKREDLINE was founded as a resource to inform and support the People and their Sheriffs, Police Chiefs, Deputies, Officers, Elected Officials, Community Organizers and activists on how to draw a THICKREDLINE in the sand against the immoral and often tyrannical dictates that violate basic freedoms, human rights, and morality.

“THICKREDLINE originated through discussions with sheriff’s deputies and police officers enforcing lockdowns and medical martial law in California. Those honest officers did not want to be bankrupting local businesses while violating the Rights of their own neighbors... They felt isolated and forced by, questionable at best, executive or administrative “orders” from politicians and unelected public health “officers”. They were searching for, and needed tools to understand their own Rights and duties to nullify illegal orders... They needed to understand others felt the same and would support them.

We want Sheriffs, Police Chiefs, Deputies, and Officers to know that the people back them up to say No! to those politicians and bureaucrats that would usurp the fundamental truths of human freedom and violate the principals of natural law, the Bill of Rights and human freedom recognized in all cultures throughout human history.”

– Howard Lichtman, Founder – THICKREDLINE

Politicians and administrators are now openly discussing and enacting more draconian “laws” that require police to use violence against peaceful people. Red flag laws, mandatory vaccinations, enforcing lockdowns and medical martial law are all assaults on both the rule of law and morality, THICKREDLINE seeks to educate police and the public on the specific, logical, and moral place to draw their own

THICKREDLINE in the sand: No Victim, No Crime!

Supporting Sheriffs, Police Chiefs, Deputies, and Officers to organize their departments in a blanket refusal to enforce victimless crimes instantly restores respectability to the police, ends the policies at the root of racial and social division in our cities.

“Ending unethical and unconstitutional enforcement of lockdowns and mask mandates ends the violation of the Right of the people to assemble and associate freely, at their own risk, Refusing to intervene in consensual, non-coercive acts and prohibitions breaks the backs of drug cartels, pimps and human traffickers, It put humans in control of their own actions and causes them to be responsible to those actions equally. This simple recognition of the principles of freedom focuses valuable police time and resources on REAL crimes. Crimes with REAL victims saving the People billions while naturally reducing the power of control and corruption in government!” – Former Sheriff Richard Mack, Founder of the Constitutional Sheriff and Peace Officer Association and THICKREDLINE Advisory Board Member

“EVERYONE respects and appreciates the police when they are focused on murders, rapists, and thieves, and those who would harm the vulnerable. It is the victimless crimes and revenue generation that cause division and strife. I want our officers focused on busting bad guys vs. being forced to raise revenue on their friends and neighbors.” – Dave Austin, Alderman – City of Vergennes, Vermont and THICKREDLINE Advisory Board Member

The project has launched a $10,000 GoFundMe campaign to launch and get campaign materials to police departments, community activists and elected officials in communities being threatened with being defunded and is distributing a Handbook and “Cards for Cops” for Sheriffs, Police Chiefs, Deputies, and citizen activists to THICKREDLINE their own departments.

The Project is hosting a series of conference calls via Zoom for those interested in REDLINING their Sheriff’s Office or Police Department:
